Al Tanween (Nunnation) & its 3 divisions

Al Tanween is: a non-vowelled noon (Noon saakinah) that is affixed to the end of the noun in pronunciation and in connected speech. The noun is void of the Noon in writing and when a stop is made on it.

Al Tanween has 3 divisions:

1. Tanween marked by a Fathah (its symbol is two Fathas).
 2. Tanween marked by a Kasrah (its symbol is two kasras).
 3. Tanween marked by a Dhammah (its symbol is two dhammas).
- Tanween is specific to the independent nouns and does not exist in the letters or the verbs.
- The noun marked by a Fathah has an additional Alif at its end and two Fathas are placed on the tanween letter. Ex: (زَيْدًا نَهْوًا فَتْحًا)
- The Alif is not added at the end if the last letter in the word is:
- a) Hamzah on the Alif. Ex: (ظَفًا ، حَطًّا)
 - b) Hamzah preceded by Alif. Ex: (دُعَاءٌ ، سَفَاءٌ ، غُطَاءٌ)
 - c) Closed Taa'. Ex: (جُنَّةٌ ، رَحْمَةٌ ، شَجَرَةٌ)
- The tanween Alif that is marked by a Fathah is connected to what precedes it in writing except with the 6 letters that do not connect to what follows them in writing (الألف ، الدال ، الذال ، الراء ، الزاي ، الواو).
